RE: Brown v. City of New York, et al., No. 07 Civ. 6163

Dear Judge Berman:

This firm represents the plaintiff in the above matter. According to this Court's order of March 26, 2008, discovery in this matter was to conclude by May 12, 2008, and a status conference was to be set thereafter. At this time, the parties are very close to settlement. However, this process was delayed by a medical emergency and death in my family in April, and by continuing difficulties reaching my client. I also learned today that my client is being moved to another state facility. The officials at Orleans Correctional Facility, where he has been housed, have advised me that they cannot tell me where he will be located until the end of this week. Accordingly, and with the consent of defense counsel, we are requesting that discovery be extended for three weeks, until June 2, 2008. This is the parties' third request for an extension.

Thank you for your consideration.

Application granted. Discovery extended to 6/2/08 (Fact + 2xmt).
